

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

*Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?*

*Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.*

*Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.*

*Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.*

*But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.*

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
– perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

SOME FELL, THE INSCRIPTIONS SAY,
BUT DID THEY TRIP
OR WERE THEY PUSHED?

SOME LOST THEIR LIVES.
YOU DO TEND TO LOSE THINGS
IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY,
BUT THAT DOES SEEM A BIT CARELESS.

SOME GAVE THEIR LIVES, WE'RE TOLD,
WHICH WAS CERTAINLY GENEROUS,
— PERHAPS TO A FAULT.

SOME EVEN MADE THE SUPREME SACRIFICE,
SO OTHERS ASSURE US,
ON THEIR BEHALF.

BUT YOU WOULD NEVER THINK,
FROM READING THESE MEMORIALS, THAT ANYBODY DESPERATELY WANTED TO LIVE,
AND THEN GOT KILLED.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

*Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?*

*Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.*

*Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
~ perhaps to a fault.*

*Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.*

*But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.*

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

*Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?*

*Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.*

*Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
– perhaps to a fault.*

*Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.*

*But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.*

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

SOME FELL, THE INSCRIPTIONS SAY,
BUT DID THEY TRIP
OR WERE THEY PUSHED?

SOME LOST THEIR LIVES.
YOU DO TEND TO LOSE THINGS
IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY,
BUT THAT DOES SEEM A BIT CARELESS.

SOME GAVE THEIR LIVES, WE'RE TOLD,
WHICH WAS CERTAINLY GENEROUS,
— PERHAPS TO A FAULT.

SOME EVEN MADE THE SUPREME SACRIFICE,
SO OTHERS ASSURE US,
ON THEIR BEHALF.

BUT YOU WOULD NEVER THINK,
FROM READING THESE MEMORIALS,
THAT ANYBODY DESPERATELY WANTED TO LIVE,
AND THEN GOT KILLED.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives,
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, were told,
which was certainly generous,
– perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
– perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

*Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?*

*Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.*

*Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.*

*Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.*

*But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.*

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen

WAR MEMORIALS 1914-18

Some fell, the inscriptions say,
but did they trip
or were they pushed?

Some lost their lives.
You do tend to lose things
in a foreign country,
but that does seem a bit careless.

Some gave their lives, we're told,
which was certainly generous,
— perhaps to a fault.

Some even made the supreme sacrifice,
so others assure us,
on their behalf.

But you would never think,
from reading these memorials,
that anybody desperately wanted to live,
and then got killed.

Michael Rosen